POLICY NUMBER 14

MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Loaned or Borrowed Medical Equipment

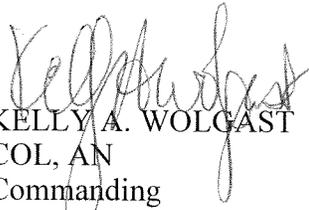

1. Activities will not enter into loans without prior approval of and coordination with the Evans Army Community Hospital (EACH) Property Book Officer (PBO). If the terms of the proposed loan are acceptable to the Government, a written agreement will be executed which sets for the responsibilities and liabilities of both the vendor and the Government.
2. Sections requiring loaned or borrowed equipment will provide Logistics Division a Request for Agreement on a memorandum with the following information:
  - a. Item nomenclature and serial number
  - b. Quantity
  - c. Location where item will be placed
  - d. Period of loan (for local approval does not exceed 30 days)
  - e. Name and telephone number of individual in activity that will be responsible for the item
  - f. Name, address, and phone number of company and point of contact
  - g. Purpose of loan
3. Existing Logistics policies apply upon acceptance at EACH i.e. temporary hand receipt procedures, technical inspections and certification. All medical equipment loaned or borrowed, will be inspected by the Equipment Management Branch prior to use to ensure that no damage occurred during transport and that equipment meets all safety standards. A temporary maintenance folder will be established for each item brought into the hospital for use in patient care areas.

This policy supersedes Policy Number 14 dated, 25 AUG 05.
